

Adina's K9 Coaching
Presents
Canine Massage with Shelly Malcolm-Beazley BPE, BScPT

Join us August 22, 2009 for a morning of canine therapeutic massage, stretching techniques and purposeful touching you can use to:

- Strengthen the loving bond you share with your dog
- Relax reactive, stressed or anxious dogs
- Increase the longevity of your dog's sports career
- Provide health benefits for both you and your dog

A life-long animal lover, Shelly Malcolm-Beazley has brought her amazing skill set in physical rehabilitation to Nova Scotia pets since 2002 when she started Pawsitive Action Physiotherapy. Since graduating with a Bachelor's Degree in Physical Education and a BSc in Physiotherapy from Dalhousie University, Shelly has continued her education, with a Sports Physiotherapy Certificate Level 3 Manual Therapy, courses in Muscle Balance by Shirley Saharman, Level 1 Acupuncture, Intramuscular Acupuncture, Basic Science for Animal Physical Therapists and a Canine Rehabilitation Certification from the Animal Rehab Institute. For more details on Shelly's outstanding career and contributions to the world of Physiotherapy, visit her web site at www.pawsitiveaction.ca.
